

AI for Business

AI concepts and practical applications for business leaders.

Programme level	Graduate, Postgraduate	Duration	10 weeks
Credits	3	Delivery	Classroom, Online, Hybrid, Executive Workshop
Subject area	AI for Business	Updated	2026-07-21

Course overview

A managerial introduction to artificial intelligence focused on use-case selection, business value, operating implications, risk and implementation choices.

Intended audience: Managers, analysts, consultants and business students who need to evaluate and lead AI-enabled initiatives.

Prerequisites: No programming prerequisite. Familiarity with business processes is expected.

Learning outcomes

- Explain major AI capabilities in business terms.
- Identify and prioritise viable business use cases.
- Evaluate data, technology and organisational readiness.
- Assess value, risk and implementation alternatives.
- Develop a practical AI adoption roadmap.

Module structure

01	Understanding AI in business Capabilities, limitations and the evolving business landscape.
02	Use-case discovery and prioritisation Value pools, feasibility and portfolio choices.
03	Data, platforms and operating models Foundations for implementation and scale.
04	Generative and autonomous AI applications Business workflows, human oversight and performance.
05	Implementation roadmap Governance, change, measurement and continuous improvement.

Assessment pattern

Assessment component	Weight
AI opportunity scan	25%
Use-case business case	35%
AI implementation roadmap	40%

Delivery note

The module sequence, class activities and assessment details may be adapted for programme schedules, cohort experience and institutional requirements. The course remains focused on practical application, structured judgement and professional communication.