

Digital Transformation for Managers

Lead change and innovation in the digital era.

Programme level	Graduate, Postgraduate	Duration	10 weeks
Credits	3	Delivery	Classroom, Online, Hybrid, Executive Workshop
Subject area	Digital Transformation for Managers	Updated	2026-07-21

Course overview

A management course on digital strategy, operating-model transformation, technology choices, organisational change and value delivery.

Intended audience: Managers, technical leaders, consultants and graduate students responsible for digital change.

Prerequisites: Professional or academic exposure to organisational processes is helpful.

Learning outcomes

- Assess digital pressures and strategic opportunities.
- Define a transformation ambition and portfolio of initiatives.
- Evaluate operating-model and technology implications.
- Plan governance, change and capability development.
- Create a value-focused transformation roadmap.

Module structure

01	Digital strategy and competitive change Business models, ecosystems and strategic priorities.
02	Customer, process and data transformation Experience, operations and enterprise information.
03	Technology and operating-model choices Platforms, architecture, sourcing and ways of working.
04	Leading organisational change Leadership, capabilities, culture and adoption.
05	Transformation portfolio and value delivery Roadmaps, governance, measures and benefits.

Assessment pattern

Assessment component	Weight
Digital maturity assessment	25%
Transformation case analysis	30%
Transformation roadmap	45%

Delivery note

The module sequence, class activities and assessment details may be adapted for programme schedules, cohort experience and institutional requirements. The course remains focused on practical application, structured judgement and professional communication.